FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This is a civil rights action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 filed by pro se Plaintiff Tommy Williams, a former inmate at the Dallas County Jail. On March 29, 2021, the Court denied as moot Williams’s motion seeking miscellaneous relief. Ord. (ECF No. 11). On April 13, 2021, the copy of the order mailed to Williams was returned to the Court marked return to sender, refused, and unable to forward because Williams is not in the Dallas County Jail. Accordingly, this case should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

Rule 41(b) allows a court to dismiss an action sua sponte for failure to prosecute or for failure to comply with the federal rules or any court order. Griggs v. S.G.E. Mgmt., L.L.C., 905 F.3d 835, 844 (5th Cir. 2018) (citing McCullough v. Lynaugh, 835 F.2d 1126, 1127 (5th Cir. 1988) (per curiam)); accord Nottingham v. Warden, Bill Clements Unit, 837 F.3d 438, 440 (5th Cir. 2016) (failure to comply with a court order); Rosin v. Thaler, 450 F. App’x 383, 383-84 (5th Cir. 2011) (per curiam) (failure to prosecute). “This authority [under Rule 41(b)] flows from the court's inherent power to control its docket and prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases.” Boudwin v. Graystone Ins. Co., Ltd., 756 F.2d 399, 401 (5th Cir. 1985) (citing Link v. Wabash, R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626 (1962)).

Here, this litigation cannot proceed because Williams has failed to keep the Court apprised of his current address. Williams filed this case on January 12, 2021, when he was in custody at the Dallas County Jail. The Court mailed Williams Instructions to a Prisoner Pro Se Plaintiff, which advised him: “You must notify the Court if your address changes, or your case may be dismissed.” (ECF No. 2.) On January 12, 2021, the Court received Williams’s complaint on the Court’s approved form, which also advised him of his obligation to keep his address current. (ECF No. 3 at 2) (“CHANGE OF ADDRESS. It is your responsibility to inform the court of any change of address and its effective date. . . . Failure to file a NOTICE TO THE COURT OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS may result in the dismissal of your complaint pursuant to Rule 41(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.”). Williams also signed the complaint underneath several declarations, including one that provided: “I understand, if I am released or transferred, it is my responsibility to keep the court informed of my current mailing address and failure to do so may result in the dismissal of this lawsuit.” (Id. at 5.)

On March 29, 2021, the Court mailed Williams the order denying as moot his motion seeking miscellaneous relief. (ECF No. 11.) But that mail was returned to the Court marked, “Return to Sender – Not in Dallas County Jail – Refused – Unable to Forward.” (ECF No. 12 at 1.) Williams has failed to provide the Court with a current address, and the Court is unable to communicate with him regarding his case. By failing to provide the Court with a current address, Williams has failed to comply with a court order and failed to prosecute his lawsuit. Dismissal without prejudice is warranted under these circumstances.

The Court should dismiss Williams's case without prejudice under Rule 41(b).

SO RECOMMENDED.

Signed April 23, 2021.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL/OBJECT

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of this report and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
